11 U.S.C. § 330.

27. In accordance with the factors enumerated in section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, it is respectfully submitted that the amount requested by PwC is fair and reasonable given (a) the complexity of the case, (b) the time expended, (c) the nature and extent of the services rendered, (d) the value of such services, and (e) the costs of comparable services other than in a case under the Bankruptcy Code.

28. In rendering these services, PwC made every effort to maximize the benefit to the Debtor and to work with other professionals employed in the case to avoid duplication of effort. PwC believes that the level of services rendered to achieve the results obtained for the benefit of the Debtor was reasonable in light of the number and complexity of the issues involved in this case at the time the services were rendered. PwC judiciously allocated responsibilities to minimize possible duplication of effort.

CERTIFICATE OF COMPLIANCE AND WAIVER

29. To the best of its knowledge, PwC believes that this Monthly Fee Application and the description of services set forth herein of work performed are in compliance with the requirements as outlined within the Compensation Guidelines, as well as its Retention Order which granted a waiver of the information requirements relating to compensation requests set forth in Local Bankruptcy Rule 2016-2(d). To the extent that this Monthly Fee Application does not comply in all respects with the requirements of the Compensation Guidelines, PwC believes that such deviations are not material and respectfully requests that such requirements be waived.

NOTICE

30. Notice of this Monthly Fee Application has been provided to the Debtor, the Fee

Examiner, and the Notice Parties (as defined within the Compensation Procedures) and PwC believe that no other or further notice need be provided.

CONCLUSION

31. PwC respectfully submits that the fees requested herein are reasonable compensation for the actual and necessary services rendered based upon the time, nature and value of such services. PwC further asserts that the costs of services rendered and expenses incurred are comparable to the cost of similar services and expenses in matters other than under the Bankruptcy Code and consistent with its Retention Application.

32. In summary, by this Monthly Fee Application, PwC respectfully requests approval and payment by the Debtor of (a) interim compensation for professional services rendered as Tax Advisor for the Debtor in the sum of $25,330.80 representing 80% of $31,663.50 incurred during the Fee Period, less a 20% holdback in the amount of $6,332.70; and (b) reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses incurred in the sum of $46.19.

WHEREFORE, PwC requests that is be allowed reimbursement for its fees and expenses incurred during the Fee Period and that such fees and expenses be paid as administrative expenses of the Debtor.

PwC's standard practice is to treat certain expenses as having been incurred when such obligations are recorded and reflected as payable in PwC's accounting system. Accordingly, reimbursement for certain disbursements sought in connection with this statement may be on account of expenses incurred during the prior fee period.
