Requested Compensation Should be Allowed

28. Section 331 of the Bankruptcy Code provides for interim compensation of professionals and incorporates the substantive standards of Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code to govern the Court's award of such compensation. 11 U.S.C. § 331. Section 330 provides that a Court may award a professional employed under Section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code "reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered and reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses." 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1). Section 330 also sets forth the criteria for the award of such compensation and reimbursement:

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded, the court should consider the nature, extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including --

- (a) the time spent on such services;
- (b) the rates charged for such services;
- (c) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;
- (d) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;
- (e) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and expertise in the bankruptcy field, and;
- (f) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

29. In accordance with the factors enumerated in section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, it is respectfully submitted that the amount requested by PwC is fair and reasonable given (a) the complexity of the case, (b) the time expended, (c) the nature and extent of the services rendered, (d) the value of such services, and (e) the costs of comparable services other than in a case under the Bankruptcy Code.

30. In rendering these services, PwC made every effort to maximize the benefit to the Debtor and to work with other professionals employed in the Chapter 11 Case to avoid duplication of effort. PwC believes that the level of services rendered to achieve the results obtained for the benefit of the Debtor was reasonable in light of the number and complexity of the issues involved in this Chapter 11 Case at the time the services were rendered. PwC judiciously allocated responsibilities to minimize possible duplication of effort.

31. Other than as provided in Section 504(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, PwC has not shared, or agreed to share, any compensation received with respect to the Interim Fee Period as a result of this Chapter 11 Case with any person, firm or entity. No agreement or understanding concerning compensation prohibited by 18 U.S.C. § 155 has been made to PwC by any firm, person or entity.

Certificate of Compliance and Waiver

32. To the best of its knowledge, PwC believes that this Application and the description of services set forth herein of work performed are in compliance with the requirements as outlined within the Compensation Guidelines, as well as its Retention Orders which granted a waiver of the information requirements relating to compensation requests set forth in Local Bankruptcy Rule 2016-2(d) to permit PwC to keep records in half-hour (0.5) increments. To the extent that this Application does not comply in all respects with the requirements of the Compensation Guidelines, PwC believes that such deviations are not material and respectfully requests that such requirements be waived.

Notice

33. Notice of this Application has been provided to the Debtor, the Fee Examiner, and the Notice Parties (as defined within the Interim Compensation Order) and PwC believes that no other or further notice need be provided. Debtor's management has reviewed the requested fees and expenses and approved them prior to submission to the Court.

Conclusion

34. PwC respectfully submits that the fees requested herein is reasonable compensation for the actual and necessary services rendered based upon the time, nature and value of such services. PwC further asserts that the costs of services rendered and expenses incurred are comparable to the cost of similar services and expenses in matters other than under the Bankruptcy Code and consistent with its Retention Orders.

WHEREFORE, PwC respectfully requests that the Court approve and authorize (i) interim allowance be made to PwC for the period from December 1, 2014 through March 27, 2015 in the sum of $274,493.00, as compensation for necessary professional services rendered, and the sum of $682.71, for reimbursement of actual necessary costs and expenses, for a total of $110,743.04; (ii) final compensation for professional services rendered to the Debtor during the Final Fee Period in the sum of $576,715.30 and reimbursement of actual necessary expenses incurred in the sum of $798.32, for a total of $577,513.62; and (iii) that the Debtor be authorized and directed to pay to PwC the outstanding amount of such sums; and (iv) granting such other and further relief as may be just and proper.

WHEREFORE, PwC requests that is be allowed reimbursement for its fees and expenses incurred during the Final Fee Period and that such fees and expenses be paid as administrative expenses of the Debtor's estate.
